

THE BOY WHO CRIED WOLF

Once upon a time there lived a shepherd boy. He lived in the hills. He [gone/ took/ meat] care of sheep. He sat up [in/ now/ see] the hills. At times he became [green/ seven/ lonely]. He did not see any people [up/ won/ you] in the hills. He never saw [jar/ any/ put] wolves. The sheep took care of themselves. [Name/ Tear/ They] grazed on the hillside. The little shepherd [just/ home/ wash] watched over the sheep. He played [not/ his/ lip] harp. One day the boy wanted [to/ I/ in] play a trick. He cried, "Help [not/ low/ me], please! Come quickly! There is [so/ a/ if] wolf after my sheep!" People from [not/ the/ you] village threw down their tools. The [men/ lot/ all] and women ran up the hillside. [They/ Near/ Went] soon saw the little shepherd. He [put/ hit/ was] lying on the ground. The villagers [just/ ask/ bent] over him. The boy was laughing. "[Ha/ It/ Be], ha, ha! I played a trick [us/ we/ on] you. There is no wolf. I [one/ was/ lap] just teasing you."

The people from [men/ hit/ the] village were not laughing. They were [very/ new/ went] angry with the little boy. They [clap/ told/ cat] the boy never to do that [dogs/ fire/ again]. "You should not cry wolf. It [ball/ ring/ was] a mean trick."

The little shepherd [sky/ just/ rest] laughed. He was not worried. Many [weeks/ right/ face] passed. The little shepherd just played [let/ his/ ate] harp. He watched his sheep. Soon [and/ for/ he] decided to play the trick on [the/jump/ for people. He cried in a loud [care/ sons/ voice], "Wolf! There is a wolf after [car/ my/ in] sheep! Someone come! Help me, please. [Deer/ Rain/ Help] me save my sheep!" The people [of/ not/ you] the village believed the little boy. [They/ Ball/ Tree] ran up the hillside. They found [yes/ old/ the] little shepherd. Again he was laughing [and/ for/ he] rolling on the ground. He said [bent/ blue/ that] he had played a trick on [the/ one/ case] people. The people were angry. They [late/ gone/ had] been fooled again!

One day the [boy/ take/ come] heard the sheep bleating. They seemed [upset/ watch/ girl]. They scooted restlessly across the field. [Live/ The/ Eye] boy became scared. Soon he saw [road/ why/ are] the sheep were running. There was [in/ so/ a] wolf! He yelled! He yelled [for/ not/ she] the people of the village to [fall/ come/ into] and help him chase the wolf [away/ yes/ you]. The people heard him but they [talk/ fan/ did] not come. They thought it was [just/ late/ toy] another trick. The boy cried and [girl/ cried/ stick]. The wolf began to eat his [call/ light/ sheep]. Finally he was full and went [away/ use/ wash]. The boy cried and cried. He [lot/ you/ saw] that his poor little sheep had [been/ room/ door] eaten. He knew it was his [why/ own/ tip] fault. He should never have cried [time/ wolf/ all] just to trick the people of [let/ life/ the] village. He was very [sorry/ bull/ mile].
